Local Man Arrested for DUI 6th Offense

(REEDSBURG, WI) A local man, who was living in a camper in the parking lot of a local grocery store, was arrested for drunk driving for the sixth time at 10:30am Tuesday morning.

Officers responded to the area of Coventry Court for a report of a camper that had struck a fire hydrant. On arrival officers learned that the driver had been living in his camper in the grocery store parking lot and the owners asked him to leave. The driver, George T. Britt (67), dumped two large bags of garbage in the parking lot and drove away. It is unknown why Britt was in the area of Coventry Court, where he ultimately struck the fire hydrant.

Britt was charged with OWI-6th Offense, Failure to Have Control of Vehicle and Littering. Britt was held in the Sauk County Jail.
